

GOLF COURSE MAINTENANCE ADVISORY

The Palmer course is scheduled for solid tine aeration today, December 2, to alleviate soil compaction and promote healthier turf growth, resulting in improved playability. A light dusting will follow the aeration process, with full recovery anticipated within a week. The Player course will undergo the same on December 9.

Thank you for your understanding.

Agronomy Department